

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF MICHIGAN
SOUTHERN DIVISION

MIKE'S CIGARS DISTRIBUTORS, INC.
a Florida corporation

Plaintiff,

Case No. 06-10990

v.

Hon. Bernard A. Friedman

MICHAEL BYELICK, an individual and MD CIGARS, LLC., an Arizona
limited liability company

Defendants.

DECLARATION OF JULIE A. GREENBERG

JULIE A. GREENBERG declares the following to be true under penalty of perjury:

1. I am counsel of record in the captioned matter. I have personal knowledge of the facts set forth herein. If called as a witness, I would testify to same.
2. I obtained various documents from the website www.archive.org, which I understand stores archived versions of websites as they existed on the designated dates. I have printed out and attached hereto certain of these documents as described more fully herein.
3. Attached hereto as Exhibit 1 is a printout of the results from www.archive.org, when a search is entered for www.mdcigars.com. It shows the dates for which an archived version of the web materials is available, and makes the archive copies viewable through a hyperlink.
4. Attached hereto as Exhibit 2 is a printout of the archived copy associated with Byelick's website www.mikescigar.com from May 18, 2001, prior to entering into the Settlement

Agreement between Mikes Cigars and Byelick (hereafter the "Settlement Agreement").

As the printout shows, the link serves as a portal to MD Cigars' website.

5. Attached hereto as Exhibit 3 is a printout of the archived copy associated with Byelick's website www.mdcigars.com from July 18, 2002, after entering into the Settlement Agreement. On page 3 of the printout in the upper left corner the words "MIKE'S CIGARS" are visible because they have been highlighted by the curser. Ex 3A is comprised of a document I created by copying from the website of Ex. 3 and pasting the content into a Word Document, with the font color changed from white and the font size increased. I have highlighted words of interest which became visible upon pasting them to this document, such as "Mike's", "Mike's Cigars," "Mike's Rare & Discount Cigars " etc.
6. Attached hereto as Exhibit 4 is a printout of the archived copy associated with Byelick's website www.mdcigars.com from Feb. 2, 2003, after entering into the Settlement Agreement. On page(s) 2-3 of the printout I have circled and drawn arrows to what is "invisible" text, although it is barely discernable when highlighted with a curser. I have copied and reprinted this text to a Word Document of Ex 4A, in black font, in a larger size. Ex. 4A shows various otherwise hidden text included in the Byelick website, including "MIKE'S DISCOUNT CIGARS." It also shows that where the visible text appears to read "Mike and Andrea" it actually hides a tiny, hidden "s" after the word Mike, so that as reprinted in black in Ex 4A, it actually says "MIKES & Andrea..."
7. Attached hereto as Ex. 5, 6, and 7 are printouts from web forums where MD CIGARS has publicized his complaints about Mike's Cigars and its principal, and encourages his supporters to call, fax, email.

8. As recently as March 6, 2006, Defendants' website, www.mdcigars.com, included the keyword "MIKE" in the metatags.

Further Declarant sayeth Not.

Dated: 3.23.06

Here we go again!

Oscar at Mikes Cigars is sending me threatening letters saying they are going to sue me for my website MDCigars.

we have letters to the troops on the site thanking us for all we do for them. they refer to me as "Mike" in the letters, saying Thanks and so on.

Well, Oscar does not like it, and states he is going to sue me..
I say, Bring it on!

What do you guys think, are my Letters from the Troops causing confusion between Mikes cigars and MD Cigars? I think not.

This is total BS and I urge you all to call or email them and let them know what you think!

I think I'll call em tommorrow and order 1K worth of cigars and before I hang up I will ask em "hey are you the guys who harrassed a shop owner who sent cigars to the troops ?" "Well never mind I'll go order from him instead" Dont think I wont do such stuff 😊

Here we go again!

Oscar at Mikes Cigars is sending me threatening letters saying they are going to sue me for my website MDCigars.

we have letters to the troops on the site thanking us for all we do for them. they refer to me as "Mike" in the letters, saying Thanks and so on.

Well, Oscar does not like it, and states he is going to sue me.. I say, Bring it on!

What do you guys think, are my Letters from the Troops causing confusion between Mikes cigars and MD Cigars? I think not.

This is total BS and I urge you all to call or email them and let them know what you think!

What is the URL for this MIKE guy?

I doubt you have anything to worry about.
In order to win he'd have to prove that the URL has nothing to do with you, AND that you bought it with the intent to either screw him over or charge him some ridiculous price for it.

Hey MD,

There is little that he can actually do except make a big stink and maybe try to waste time in court. Your website has nothing to do with his, nor are you even using a tradename that is exclusive to him. Even IF you were, it would have to be proven that it is being used in bad faith.

In todays world, one can sue for anything. But there has to be some sufficient grounds for that person to win. Especially in such a case!

World Renowned

Mike or MD...hmm,no confusion there,two entirely different names. It's like if one guy bought a domaine mikes.com and another bought mikes.org....its legal in all aspects. This guy is an idiot and because of his retarded actions I'd stay away from his site altogether,let alone do business with him.Of course there may be more to the story but either way it's none of my business.

Then their lawyers say they are going to settle, but behind my back file anyway!

Then, when I return from my vacation I find that now Now the jerks at Mikes cigars h far as to copy my site! what a Jerk this Oscar must be..

If you look here you will see what Mikes Cigars website looked like just before the lav <http://web.archive.org/web/20050330011647/http://www.mikesclgars.com/>

now if you go to www.mikesclgars.com and see that site..

now look at mdcigars www.mdcigars.com

you better hope no one confuses your respective shops...i would hate to be confused w that runs mike's. your business would drop off significantly were that to happen.

i have long refused to buy anything from that shop as a result of the many complaints over the years, but this takes the cake.

a man can use his given name in business, especially as you have. you should consider countersuit for your expenses if this can be done in your state. this is clearly frivolous and there should be a cost beyond the ill will this will generate with people like us...per a lot of cigars.

then again, maybe we are just a drop in the bucket of the overall business of mike's ar safely ignored.

Sometimes I don't get the big picture but from what I'm hearing a guy named owns a company named Mike's Cigars doesn't want a guy name Mike who owns a company named MD Cigars to be called Mike on any of his web site postings.

There is got to be something else that is not in this big picture. The only winners are lawyers who will be making money. Unless you can counter sue for a frivolous suit and recover lawyer cost.

Good Luck

Those pictures from the serviceman deployed are great.

Mike, as I wrote earlier, you really need to determine venue. Cross file in your local court.

Here's where another problem lies. Mike's Oscar Borochin, JR's Lew Rothman, Holt's R and House of Oxford's Mark Goldman control significant product distribution. They are beside being colleagues. If you have difficulty getting product from any and all, either through distribution channels or from manufacturers, your only recourse is to file in federal court where they are colluding to restrict trade. Of course, first recourse, is to the U.S. Department of Justice of Alcohol, Tobacco, and Firearms. Pending a hearing, you could have Mike's license to sell products suspended.

If, indeed, Mike's has recently changed its website and it now mimics yours, you should sue and get substantial damages.

Having found that there are two sides to every story, I will have to guess that there is r

Whatever you post here can certainly be used in a lawsuit against you.

I just looked at the two web sites and I don't see much similarity. I do recall noticing they changed the look of their web site a few months ago, but it would never occur to me to copy mdcigars.com. Just my opinion. As for using your own name on your web site, how they could prevent you from doing that. It reminds me of Monster Cable suing everybody with the word monster in their product or web site name.

There ya go.. I took out my personal comments.. I will just keep it to the facts....

We have a prior agreement that I will not use Mikes Cigars in my trademark. At that time I change my business name from Mikes Discount to MD Cigars

Now they come back saying I cant use my name in the text of my site 5 years later w know I am legally able to do so.

Then they have their lawyers contact me and agree to settle if I make a couple changes, even though I did not have to.

Then, when they say they are settling, they change their page to match mine, then finally

Its easy to see when the change happened as the internet archive site archives all site changes, including mine.

You make your own mind, I am only stating the facts.

Youch! Did you see one of the special items?

Cuban Crafters has it listed as:

Quote:

MIKE'S CIGAR BUNDLE - TORO DISCOUNT CIGARS - 25 IN A BUNDLE - 6 inches long with a ring gauge of 50.

If Oscar at Mike's Cigars threatened Mike of MD Cigars for having U.S. serviceme write: "Dear Mike" and have the letters on his website, wait until he sees MIKE'S BUNDLE.

I wonder if I could copy-write my name, then sue everyone else named Tim. I wouldn't large damages, $100/ea should be sufficient. ☺
